

Welcome to the SIANI Annual Meeting!
21 January, 2015, 9:00 - 16:00,
Myntkabinettet, Slottsbacken 6, Stockholm, Sweden

Join us for the discussion about the future development of our network! We would like to invite all members, as well as those who are interested, to give your input and guidance in planning the activities for the 2015.

This year's meeting will feature a Round Table dialogue consultation with the participants. Discussions in groups will focus on:

In 2015 SIANI will work within the topics of Nutrition, Soils and the SDGs. How would you like to contribute and what aspects you would like to highlight?

This day at Myntkabinettet will offer you a platform to network and to discuss emerging issues as well as to work together with those who share the same interest.

The meeting is free of charge and will include:

- Lunch, refreshments, presentations, workshops, networking and entertainment.
- Speakers include Eva-Charlotte Ekström, Professor in Global Nutrition, Uppsala University, Alex Arevalo Vasquez, Programme Manager, Sida, Jakob Granit, Centre Director, Stockholm Environment Institute, among others.

Moderator: Melinda Fones Sundell, SIANI Senior Advisor.

Visit the event page for registration and agenda.

Register before 14 January. Registration is required.

Warmly Welcome!
